

Notification regarding Taiwanese GHS label change for HogoMax103

Thank you for using DISCO products.
Please see the details regarding this change below.
Thank you.

Notification

The following change will be implemented for the Taiwanese GHS label for HogoMax103.

- Deleting the words “添加劑 (Additives)” (Taiwanese section) and “Additives” (English section) from the composition information

Thank you for your understanding and cooperation.

Background

According to Taiwan’s GHS regulations, it is DISCO’s responsibility in principle to indicate hazardous substances.

Although “Additive” was indicated as a hazardous substance included in HogoMax103, this substance is not hazardous, and thus the decision was made to delete this item from the GHS label.
